

Julie Baldwin

Julie Baldwin is Manager of the Michigan Public Service Commission's Renewable Energy Section. Julie has worked at the Commission for 22 years in the areas of both natural gas and electric utility regulation and is currently working on implementing Michigan's renewable portfolio standard and issues related to net metering and interconnection.